

CITB Site Environmental Awareness Training (SEATS)

Course Introduction

The CITB Site Environmental Awareness Training Scheme (SEATS) will provide candidates with a thorough introduction to environmental issues on construction sites. It is designed to meet the basic environmental knowledge that the sub-contract chain is required to prove to major contractors, covers the environmental aspects of the new touch screen Health, Safety and Environmental test.

Course Topics

- The Environment and its Importance
- Environmental Management Systems
- Waste Management
- Pollution Prevention & Water Management
- Being Neighbourly; Statutory Nuisance, Communication, Archaeology and Heritage
- Energy & Resources
- Being a Responsible Contractor

Course Benefits

The "SEATS" course covers the environmental aspects of the new touch-screen Health, Safety and Environmental Test which must be completed in order to obtain site access.

Assessment Method

25 Multiple Choice Question Exam

Qualification Expiry

5 Years